TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19. 1738.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Belgrade, Nov. 22. O. S.

TWO Days ago Harum Bashaw, the Chief or Captain of the Highwaymen lately apprehended and brought hither, was executed at the Gallows. Many are the Robberies that have been committed by this Highwayman, who was call'd Emperor of the Woods. He died with an unexampled Intrepidity; for as he wou'd have nothing to do with any of the Priests and Fryars sent to prepare him for Death, so as he mounted the Ladder, he sung a very free Song, in the Rascian Language, with a gay and smiling Countenance.

Vienna, Dec. 2. 'Tis settled, that the Great Duke of Tuscany, with his Consort the Archdutchess, and his Brother Prince Charles of Lorain, shall set out next Wednesday for Italy: All their Equipage is already gone before, and they are to be attended by a Detachment of the Emperor's Life Guard. The Senate of Venice have consented, that the Duke, and his Dutchess, with Prince Charles, shall pass thro' their Territories without performing Quarantain; and as to their Domesticks, they are to travel by four different Roads, and to have some Days abated of the Quarantine, provided they are examined before-hand by some experienced Physicians, who shall be sent for that Purpose to the Frontiers. The Velt Marshal Count de Konigsegg is returned from the Army, after having performed his Quarantine. 'Tis reported, that by reason of his great Age and Infirmities, he will be excused from taking the Command of the Army upon him next Year; and one Circumstance, which seems to make it the more probable, is having resign'd his Post of President of the Council of War, for that of Great Steward to the Empress's Houshold. 'Tis likely that the Velt Marshal de Wallis will have the chief Command of the Army in his room.

Letters which the Court received the other Day from Belgrade say, 'twas reported there that Prince Joseph Ragotski, was dead at Widdin; but it wants Confirmation. The same Advices say, that the Seraskier Bashaw of Widdin, had laid all the Villages in Imperial Servia under Contribution; but that the Velt Marshal de Wallis sent him Word, That if he wou'd please to come in Person to raise those Contributions, he wou'd be sure to give him a Meeting.

As for the News of Prince Ragotski's Death, it was brought, they say, to Belgrade, by some Turks that served as a Convoy to an Express from Constantinople, who, they say here, has brought Advice, that the Grand Vizier has declared, that the Grand Seignior will not determine either for War or Peace, till after the holding of a Great Divan, which is therefore impatiently expected.

Petersburg, Nov. 24. O. S. The two Prisoners of Distinction that lately arrived here, and were taken in Crim Tartary by General Lascy, viz. the Bashaw of Perecop, and the Aga of the Janissaries, lodge in the same House with the Seraskier of Oczakow, who, tho' he knew beforehand of their Arrival, cou'd not help expressing his Surprize when he saw them come in, and said to them, I see, my Friends, you have not been more fortunate than myself; if the War continues, 'tis not unlikely but we may have more of our Brethren to keep us Company. The two new Guests were astonish'd to see the Seraskier of Oczakow in such commodious Lodgings, and especially when they saw he was indulg'd to build and furnish an Apartment in the Turkish Taste. They are all serv'd by their own Domesticks, who are thirty-two in Number, and the Court furnishes them with the necessary Provisions every Day. The Persian Ambassadors who are here, having affirm'd that Kouli Kan was dispos'd to conclude a new Treaty of Alliance with the Czarina, the Prince Trubetskoy, who is appointed for her Ambassador to that victorious Prince, has receiv'd Orders to prepare for his Departure for Persia.

Naples, Nov. 21. O.S. The King Don Carlos, in order to introduce a Reformation in the Manners of his Troops, and an Uniformity in their Stature, has commanded that all his Soldiers who are known to be vicious, negligent, insolent, or addicted to Drinking be cashier'd, and that all the Men under Size, whether of the Foot or Horse, be likewise dismiss'd the Service.

Paris, Dec. 12. O. S. Tho' the Court has sent Orders to all their Ministers and Consuls in Italy, to do what they can to find out where the Baron de Neuhoff lurks, they cannot yet learn any certain Tydings where he is, tho' 'tis suspected that he sculks in some Town in the State del Presidii, that he may be at Hand to know how Matters go in Corsica, and have an Opportunity of making his Party some private Visits: And 'tis even affirm'd, that he actually made one very lately, but that he stay'd ashore only 24 Hours, for fear of falling into the Hands of the Spies, who are planted by the Count de Boissieux in several Parts of the Island.

IRELAND.

Galway, Dec. 8. We have had a Ship come ashore in Cusheen Bay near this Port, eight or ten Days ago, without Mast, Sail, or Boats, or so much as one living Soul on Board: The ignorant Country People, greedy of Spoil, instead of saving her, which it is said was easy to do, let her run on Rocks and wrecked her: By some Papers found, she was a French West India-man; her Lading, which was Sugar, Cotton, Coffee, and Indigo, seems to put that beyond Doubt, but what are become of the Crew, no one knows; the whole Cargo is almost quite lost, nothing being saved, but what little could be grasped by the Peasants. Some did affirm there was Gold Dust, which, if true, was possibly taken away by the Crew, who left their Keys in the empty Chests.

Dublin, Dec. 12. On Thursday last before Day, there was great Thunder and Lightning near this City.

By Letters from Armagh, we hear, that the Relict of the Rev. Dr. Robert Maxwell, was interred at Tynan last Monday with great Solemnity. There were many of the Clergy and others attending the Funeral; above fifty Linen Scarves were given; she hath been afflicted with the Dumb Palsy ever since her Husband's Death. It is said she hath made a Will, and left to her said Husband's Relations in Money and good Leases, &c. to the Value of nine thousand Pounds, but not very much to her own Friends.

We hear by Letters from Roscrea, that a Fellow dressed like a Beggar, went to the Priest of that Parish in the Evening, and asked Charity, which the Priest very readily gave. The Beggar then asked leave to lye with him as it was late, and the Gentleman ordered a Bed of clean Straw to be made for him in a Barn; but the Mendicant said, he was afraid of Spirits, and begged Leave to be in the House, to which his generous Benefactor readily consented. The supposed Beggar had not been long in his Chamber, when the Maid of the House discovered him undressing himself, and saw him lay two Pistols on the Table. The Servant acquainted her Master with what she saw, and told her Suspicions to him, that this Fellow must be a Robber, upon which he sent her to a neighbouring Protestant Gentleman, who was so kind as to bring Arms with him. When the vagabond Beggar imagined that all were asleep, he went to the Priest's Chamber, demanding the Key of his Chest, and to tell where his Money lay. The Priest gave the Key, the Robber went to take the Money, and while he was searching the Chest, the Gentleman shot him through the Back; and the Rogue expired immediately. The Noise of the Pistol alarmed four Villains, which were waiting without to share the Plunder, who broke into the House, in order to murder the Family, and as they were endeavouring to break open the Door, the Gentleman fired a Blunderbuss, which wounded them all in a terrible Manner; and we hear that some of them are since dead, and we hope the others will soon be taken.

Last Wednesday the Honourable Brigadier General Ligonier's Horse on Dublin Duty, marched into Country Quarters; and their Place in this Barrack, is supplied by the Honourable Brigadier General Hawly's Dragoons.

John Clarke, Esq; Collector of Killibegs, is made Collector of Newry and Dundalk, in the room of Christopher Carlton, Esq; lately deceased.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Dec. 12. Last Week died at Grantsfield in Aberdeenshire, the Right Hon. Lady Kinnaird: She was a Daughter of the ancient Family of Strathmore, was first married to the Earl of Aboyne, afterwards to the Lord Kinnaird, and for these several Years past to Capt. Alexander Grant of Grantsfield.

On the 4th Instant a Fire broke out in the East End of the Town of Kelso, and burnt with great Violence for five Hours; Eight Families were burnt out, who had much ado to save their Lives, and lost every thing else in the World; 11 Horses of Capt. Boggest's Troop of Sir Robert Rich's Dragoons, were consumed to Ashes, with the Stable, and a great deal of Forage, together with 8 Stacks of Corn, a large Rick of Hay, a lesser one, and some Barns full of Grain.

Friday last died here Mr. James Simson, Merchant, and late Dean of Guild of this City.

Upon the FRONTISPIECE of the DUNCIAD.

PALLAS for Wisdom prais'd her fav'rite Owl;
P--pe, for its Dulness, chose the self-same Fowl;
Which shall we praise? or which shall we despise?
If P--pe is witty, Pallas is not wise.
Say, learned Sages! must we never see
The Day when P--pe with Pallas shall agree?
When Foes no longer on one Throne shall sit,
The Power of Wisdom, and the Bard of Wit.

The Officer who made the Seizure, was on Duty on board the Providence and Hannah, which lately came from Norway, and lay at Anchor near the said Stairs, and perceiving several small Bags to be carried out of the Boat, it gave him a Suspicion, upon which he went ashore and made the Seizure as before-mentioned; there were three Men belonging to the Boat, but when the Officer came, they all ran away.

Bank, December 14, 1738.

UPON a Representation from his Majesty's Post-Master-General, that it is apprehended that the Expectation of finding Bank Bills in the Letters gives Encouragement to the frequent Robbery of the Mails, the Bank of England, to contribute what in them lies to put a Stop thereto, and to render their Bills of no Significancy or Value to those who are guilty of such flagitious Practices, do declare, that for the Benefit and Security of those who have Occasion to transact Money Affairs in the Country, they will, from and after the 1st Day of January next, (instead of three Days Sight Bills) give to such as desire the same, their Bills payable at seven Days after Sight, to or Order, whereby, in case of a Robbery, the Proprietors will have Time to give Notice thereof; and if the Endorsements are duly filled up, as they expect they should, they can be of no Use or Service but to the right Owners.

And whereas they may fall into those Hands who may be ignorant of the Form of endorsing them, a Blank Endorsement will be printed on the Back for the Parties to fill up, and to be repeated as Occasion requires.

WHereas Mr. William Midford, aged about 50, of a middle Stature, and fresh Complexion, went away from his Chambers in the Inner Temple, London, on the 5th Day of August last, and took Water at White-Friars, with an Intent, as he declared, to go into Kent; but has not since been heard of: Whoever will give any Account of him, if living or dead, to Mr. Leonard Martin, of Grange Court, Carey-street, shall be sufficiently rewarded for so doing.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VIRUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a femina! Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most Inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medidine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
